

The Bishop's Visit to Leckhampton C. E. Primary School

On Monday the 4th of July 2005, Leckhampton Primary School was delighted to welcome the Rt. Revd. Michael Perham, The Bishop of Gloucester. The Bishop came to visit us for a very special reason. This was to mark the 100th anniversary of the original Edwardian school building.

The children in Assembly.

Mrs Smallwood conducts the Year 6 Choir.

Children present the history of the school buildings.

Bishop Michael
talks to the children in Assembly.

Mr Gardner,
Bishop Michael
and the Birthday Cake

Happy Birthday to the 1905 buildings!

Bishop Michael rededicates the buildings in front of the original 1905 dedication stone.

Bishop Michael, Rev Paul Wilkinson and Mr Gardner visit the classrooms.

The Bishop reads a story.

Headteacher Mr Gardner, Chair of Governors Mrs Anne Gale, Bishop Michael and the Rev Paul Wilkinson outside the school at the end of a very successful visit.

100 years ago... the original dedication procession with the Bishop and his attendants making their way to the school across the construction site for the 1905 building.

The Bishop lays the dedication stone in 1905 - from the umbrellas in the picture, it must have been raining.